

THE SAMATIC SCRIPTURE

Philosophical Movement

Peter C. Prins

Preface

The Samatic Scripture is a philosophical movement of the first magnitude. A new belief system based on Indulgence.

We are living in an era of intellectual awareness unlike any the world has ever seen.

This book has the potential to change your life. It is an evolutionary work, written with elegance. If you look within these pages and see yourself; If you find its principles to be those you've lived; If you feel the sense of homecoming, then you will have discovered The Samatic Doctrine.

Samatic is a serious alternative to the doctrine of organized religions.

Humans can no longer evolve on a physical level, but it is possible to evolve on a psychological level.

Why does human life exist on earth? Does everything that happens have to have a cause? Is everything that happens predetermined? Is there free will?

In this you will find truth and fantasy, each is necessary for the other to exist.

I invite you to follow me, take a step in my direction.

Contents.

Samatic Scripture represents...

Pain and Suffering

Happiness, Pleasure and Enjoyment.

Greed

Envy

Religion and Politics

Wisdom

Time

Young People

Parents and Marriage

Guilt and Compassion

Logic

Criticism

Depression

Perfection

Jealousy and Love

Psychological Development

Self-Esteem

Anger

Education and Mind Power

The Myth of Heaven and Hell

Spirituality

Stress

Mistakes

Sex and Sin

Donation

Fear- Forgiveness- Resistance

True Friendship and Relationships

Factors 1...Factors 2...Ritual

Samatic Scripture represents the following

Samatic acknowledge that it has become necessary for a new belief system, based on the natural instincts of human beings to emerge.

It has been clearly established that the majority of all illnesses are of a psychosomatic nature and that psychosomatic illnesses are a direct result of frustration. It has been said that “the good die young.” It is the frustration of our natural instincts which leads to the deterioration of our minds and bodies.

Samatic acknowledge that after death the mind which carries the personality perishes with the death of the body, while the formless consciousness, which is connected to the divine, joins the universal consciousness.

Samatic advocates unlimited freedom, but only to the extent that one's preferences do not affect someone else's.

Samatic advocates the destruction of false hope.

Samatic represents untainted wisdom.

Samatic acknowledge that consciousness and god are one and the same.

Our consciousness reflects the collective consciousness and the collective consciousness reflects the universal consciousness.

Consciousness is full awareness, the watcher of the mind, allows us to understand our thought, observing and witnessing the thought activities inside our mind.

Only through us can the universal consciousness, or God, be aware of his consciousness. This is how important people are to the creator.

Consciousness is full perfection, never dies, the source of happiness, formless, timeless, never changing, always present inside and outside the body.

The only place where both consciousness and life exist are in the present moment in the timeless.

Consciousness is seen as the balancing factor in nature and not as being concerned with suffering.

Samatic advocate to live every moment of your life as if it was your own choice, totally accepting how you feel or experience at that moment.

Samatic advocate unlimited freedom, there are no guidelines and no restrictions on food, drink or clothing.

Samatic represent healthy doctrines, that expand the human race to be independent of organized religion. Make us responsible for our actions and force ourselves to take responsibility for land and society, all without the prevailing existence of eternal punishment or heavenly rewards.

Human beings have an ego that they have to accept and strengthen, but they must remain focused and alert to keep it under control. Only if a person's own ego is sufficiently fulfilled, can he afford to be kind and complimentary to others, without robbing himself of his self-respect.

If we hope and pray for something to come about, we will not act in a positive way which will make it happen. Anything someone gets, is of his own doing. Taking command of the situation instead of praying for it to happen.

Samatic is actively concerned with all the facets of human existence, not with only the so-called spiritual aspects.

Only doubt can lead to mental emancipation. Why should we eliminate the bad thing if we can turn it into a good thing?

Theories and ideas that possibly meant life, hope and freedom for our ancestors can now be harmful to us! We have to adapt to the ever-changing environment.

Samatic encourages those who believe in what is best for them. Martyrdom and non-personalized heroism is to be associated not with integrity, but with stupidity. This, of course, does not apply to the situations which involve the safety of a loved one. But to give one's own life for something as impersonal as a political or religious issue is the ultimate in barbarism.

To a large extent, religion has divided people more than unifying them. We have many different religions in the world and each one developed its own ideology and belief system that people could identify with. Each individual religion claims to have the right ideology, considering its own followers to be the only true believers and all others are wrong. This is one of the main cause of violence and hatred in the world. Man must know how to make use of religion for his betterment and for his happiness in a respectable way, not by following faith blindly but to develop proper understanding and to experience what is good for us and for others. Everyone should have the freedom to believe in anything that agrees with his own reasons and own common sense.

Human are already pure and good inside, that it is our basic nature. We all are made of this inner consciousness, the source of goodness and happiness, which is simply covered up by the negative beliefs that we hold about ourselves. So, all we need to do is to remove our inner negativity which will reveal our natural goodness, our consciousness that was there all along.

Samatic encourages any form of sexual expression you may desire, so long as it hurts no one else.