Have a great time.

Accustomed

Familiar with something; usual (for example: She quickly became accustomed to new job).

Agenda

Is a list of things to be discussed or done at a meeting or business event (for example: Are you sure we can cover everything on today's agenda in 2 hours?).

Agglomeration

Means a large group of many different things collected or brought together.

Agile

When someone or something is agile, it can deal with changes quickly and successfully. An agile company is able to adapt quickly and easily adapt to all changes and complexities.

Allusion

Is a figure of speech that makes a reference to a place, person, or event. This can be real or imaginary and may refer to anything, including fiction, folklore, historical events, or religious manuscripts (for example: When she lost her job, she acted like a Scrooge, and refused to buy anything that wasn't necessary).

Amalgamate

To bring together, unite; to combine different things to create something new.

Ambiguity

Means something unclear or confusing or it can be understood in more than one way (for example: There are some ambiguities in the legislation).

Ambivalence

Is a state of having simultaneous conflicting reactions, beliefs, or feelings towards some object. Stated another way, ambivalence is the experience of having an attitude towards someone or something that contains both positive and negative components. The term also refers to situations where “mixed feelings” of a more general sort are experienced, or where a person
