KRANE

I fold your forms bend morph and change you into something you were not now you ARE
-a folded piece-
of paper and as I make MORE
you become my peace pipe my offering to the others to find ways to cross the barriers of AGE and TIME
a little hand reaches up for her -tiniest friend-
a “Tiny BiWd” for the other birds to play with a once unfolded piece of paper now a spark of countless hours of imagination to come

True love

I see your eyes and yet you are not here you pierce at me through the darkness
Two blue orbs brighten my room and as I open my eyes I feel your touch traveling back
I live again in a moment past
future and present merge and become one as I come to the realization that time does not exist

The Greater

You are great as you smile from ear to ear and Radiate JOY to others
your moon in LEO meant to perform to Spit and heal through your ART and PASSION while you travel the world wrapped in bacon and ready

- for any good cause

Bird house

What we can do is different from what we want to do.

Today you could build a home for someone.

It is simple.

We keep our homes clean and sterile, with no space for bird or beast.

They are forced to "invade" our home just like we did theirs.

Yet, today like many others people built homes across the world for birds of all sizes.

They need some shelter from rain a hole small enough to protect them from predators in a shaded space that hides them from plain sight.

SUNNY side

Bright and shiny most radiant SELF
Strong in your course inside fragile and small Protected by the light from those who wish you harm Inner beauty is seen by the ones who can look into the
SUN

OUTSIDE

I see myself as I lay still silently starving Yet unable to move
I listen to the rhythmic beat of the traffic
the high-pitched noise of the electrical humming unable to hear my own heart beat The busy hummingbird happily flying from flower to flower as I stare out of my window contemplating to move or to get up and make something out of myself and the remainder of my life as people freshen their faces with stem cells and INSTAGRAM their lives

The food I eat makes me swell up like a frightened Pufferfish I prefer to stay to not move or eat until a butterfly comes to my window-the BIGGEST one I have ever seen.
On my flight outside I take the lens cap off vaguely remembering the sense of loss now outside in pursuit of nature to admire and to LOVE

I HIDE in YOU

I sleep
in my dreams
you are with me and I am with you as I awaken you disappear and my soul reaches out for you as you slowly vanish in my mind's eye.
I drown in sadness for my loss of the person I could have been with you.
Alone
comfortable covered I curl up and close my eyes forcing a smile Hypnos take me away untill I can smile
again.

KINDness

KINDness = priceless
In a world that seems lost and hopeless

I smile as I look around The man who can eat toast only; he has a budget
The girl who cannot eat;
her stomach is upset

Grateful for KINDness
In a world full of people who are KIND - sometimes-in a world that seems a mess

FREE - to change
FREE - to grow
FREE - to share a moment and let some KINDness GROW

ZORK

I have a dream that one day I will ...

what mom yes mom I will mom I will be right there mom yes thank you mom

I have a dream that one day I will rise my to my ...

yes yes yes

wait a minute

where was I. I was ... oh yeah that was it

I have a dream that one day I will find the girl who would have and bury and wrap a dozen children with me.

Unless of course she does not want to have children.

I will have whatever she wants to have.

It will be perfect.

"Zork!"

HOPE FOR YOU

I have hope for you as you shed your skin your cells

growing and expanding

with the universe

you grow and live and learn

I would wish for the world to heal but there is war in learning wiring, twisting and relearning habits the world exists not because it is

PEOPLED

A tree that longs to grow has just as much desire and will to live as an ant or ape!

There are smart people, like dolphins and there are dumb people like

HOMO SAPIENS

all roaming this planet

Some animal keen on

Being

others keen on

HAVING

OBTAINING & CONQUERING

all the same

A mom can love her child a dog can love its owner why can't all HUMANS learn to love
